

MURDERER OF AUTO DRIVER IS CAPTURED

ROMANTIC STORY OF A RED CROSS NURSE.

AUTO ASSASSIN CAUGHT.

Murderer of Chauffeur Captured at a Small Station.

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—The murderer of William Bates, the chauffeur, whose dead body was found in an automobile near Lemont, is reported to have been captured at a small station on the Rock Island Road between Minooka, Ill., and Morris, Ill.

AN EYE WITNESS.

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—An eye witness of the mysterious murder of John W. Bates Jr., has been found in John Hennes, a young farmer, who lived a mile from where the automobile containing Bates' body was discovered. Hennes told the police that on the night of the murder he was aroused about 11 o'clock by the noise of an automobile. As the machine neared his place he heard loud voices as if the occupants of the machine were quarrelling.

About 100 feet away passing in front of the house he saw the outlines of an automobile. The machine seemed to be swerving from side to side, its occupants were talking loudly, and one of them seemed to be standing on the rear seat. Suddenly the person in the rear held a revolver at arms length and fired straight ahead. The machine continued on its way and Hennes heard nothing more. He believed that nobody was hurt until he learned of the murder.

NOT THIS DOVE.

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 22.—It has developed here that the Frank N. Dove of Topeka, is not the mysterious "Mr. Dove" wanted in connection with the Chicago automobile tragedy, as charged. The Topeka Mr. Dove, notwithstanding the coincidence of having the same name and notwithstanding the fact that he formerly lived at Joliet, has worked in the Santa Fe offices here every day for the past two months.

THREATENED BY A MOB.

NEGRO MURDERERS HAVE NARROW ESCAPE FROM LYNCHING.

LEXINGTON, Ky., November 22.—The mob that threatened to lynch the negroes held in jail here for killing a white man last Sunday night and attempting to kill other white people, dispersed as day dawned. The troops and extra police have also retired and the jail is guarded now only by deputies. It is believed that all danger of lynching is passed, as the authorities cannot now be taken by surprise and the jail will be well guarded at night with troops in readiness for call.

AMERICAN-GERMAN TREATY SIGNED

WASHINGTON, November 22.—The American-German arbitration treaty was signed this morning at the State Department by Secretary Hay and Baron Sternberg, the German Ambassador. It is identical with the American French treaty.

GET PHILIPPINE SHOW.

ST. LOUIS, November 22.—Representatives of the Lewis and Clark Exposition, to be held in Portland, Oregon, next year, have reached an agreement with the Philippine Government Board for the removal of a part of the Philippine exhibit to the Western exposition.

BARGES ARE FOUND.

HIGHLAND LIGHT, Mass., November 22.—The barges Buffalo and Burden, which broke adrift from the tug Lehigh Sunday night, were found today by the tug fifteen miles east of Highland Light. The tug proceeded with them to Boston. All on board were well and the barges had met with no mishap.

STORM SWEEPS ENGLAND.

Life Boats Are Busy Looking After Wrecks on Coast.

LONDON, November 22.—Keen frost and heavy snow squalls are reported from all parts of the United Kingdom. A gale raged all night over the coasts, driving vessels to shelter and seriously dislocating the telegraph wires and especially in the north of England and in Scotland.

Blinding snowstorms are causing deep drifts and are necessitating a cessation of on-door work in many of the provincial towns.

In London little snow has fallen, but a sharp fall in temperature is accentuating the distress among the poor, which is already prevalent.

The snow is so deep at Chatsworth that the King of Portugal and others of the house party there have been prevented from shooting.

Some small craft have been wrecked. Up to the present time November has been unusually mild and the sudden change is causing much misery. Wintry weather seems general in Europe, frost being reported as far south as Naples. The land lines in Ireland are affected, causing delay in communications with America.

The lifeboats are busy, but the most serious wreck so far reported is that of the British steamer Indralie, which was driven ashore on the rocks near Sunderland. The life-savers took off the crew.

A few fatalities have occurred as the result of wrecks of small craft.

U. S. COLLIER IN A COLLISION.

ACCIDENT AT GENOA, ITALY, DELAYS SAILING OF UNITED STATES CRUISER.

GENOA, Italy, November 22.—Owing to a collision between the United States collier Abarenda and the Italian bark Nostri Signora Della Grazia, the United States cruiser Olympia, which was to have sailed from here last night, postponed her departure until today.

This morning, accompanied by the Abarenda the Olympia sailed for Gibraltar, where the former will be repaired. The damage to the collier is estimated at $2000, while that sustained by the bark amounts to $200.

The American consul here, William R. Bishop, has arranged with the port authorities for an indemnity to be paid to the owners of the bark.

STRIKERS ACCUSED OF POISONING

CINCINNATI, November 22.—Following the arrest of Thomas Bracken, a Union founder, at Detroit last night for the alleged murder here October 7 of Samuel Weekly, a non-union foundry workman, private detectives today charged two plots against certain strikers, one for the murder of Weekly and the other for the poisoning of a number of non-union men who were staying at a large boarding-house.

TRAIN'S VICTIM DIES.

Frank Pimentel, who was struck several days ago by a train at Decoto, died this morning at the County Infirmary. Nothing is known of the young man's family or antecedents.

SCHOOLS TO CLOSE.

On account of Thanksgiving, the public schools will be closed from Wednesday evening, November 23d, until Monday morning, November 28th.

MRS. MCFADDEN'S FUNERAL.

The funeral of Mrs. Lydia H. McFadden, who died at Repressa on November 20, will be held in this city on Wednesday, from 5 to 7 Thirteenth street.

WITNESSES AGAINST NAN PATTERSON.

Cab Driver Knows Little About the Shooting.

NAN PATTERSON IN THE TOMB.

NEW YORK, November 22.—Search for a missing witness who formerly has eluded the detectives of the District Attorney's office and the possibility that one of the central figures in the case—the dead man's widow—would appear before the jury and tell her story, were the points of special interest to-day when the trial of Nan Patterson for the alleged murder of Caesar Young was resumed.

SMITH LOCATED.

In outlining his case yesterday Assistant District Attorney Rand informed the jury that the prosecution, after months of endeavor, had been unsuccessful in locating J. Morgan Smith, who, he claimed, purchased the revolver with which Young was killed. He hoped, however, that Smith would be brought forward by the defense at the proper time. Later in the day Miss Patterson's counsel, Mr. Levy, said the defense had no intention of producing Smith.

Following the announcement it was said that the District Attorney's office renewed its search for the missing with the hope of locating him and compelling him to appear in court before it is too late.

DEFENDANT TO TESTIFY.

Only the announcement that the defendant herself would go on the stand and tell of her acquaintance with Young could have created more public interest than the report that the dead bookmaker's widow might appear in the case. Since her husband died Mrs. Young has remained in seclusion, except when she called at the District Attorney's office and testified before the Grand Jury. During the trial she has not appeared in the courtroom, but it is said she has followed all the proceedings from an adjoining room.

A large crowd was present in the courtroom when the Patterson trial was resumed. Among the spectators sat Milton W. Hazelton of Oneonta, one of the men who claims to have seen Young fire the shot that caused his death.

OFFICERS CALLED.

Several police officers were called to the stand in quick succession and examined briefly regarding happenings in the police station, when Miss Patterson was brought there under arrest.

Captain Sweeney, who was in charge of the station-house at the time identified the revolver which he said was found in Young's pocket and which he subsequently turned over to Assistant District Attorney Garvin with the three loaded cartridges and the exploded shells. Miss Patterson, he said, told him the story of the ride down-town and declared that she had not seen the shooting. She denied that she had any words with Young and said that she had picked up the revolver which fell from Young's hand when he fired the fatal shot and placed it in his pocket.

WHEELER TAKES ACTION.

BERKELEY, Nov. 22.—President Wheeler today took action in the case of the Senior students at the State University involved in the recent riot over military orders. Forty-eight of the students have received notices from Recorder James Sinton to the effect that they have been placed on probation as punishment for their part in the disturbance.

According to the joint regulations of the faculty No. 76, this means that the men are in danger of exclusion from the University provided there is any further disobedience. This action has been taken on the recommendation of Captain Nance of the Military Department. There are still fifteen students

LOOKING FOR HER LOVER.

Romantic Story About the Mukden Red Cross Nurse.

CHEFOO, November 22, 10 p. m.—A romantic story develops around Miss Corelle, the Red Cross nurse at Mukden, who reached Chefoo last night. As stated in these dispatches yesterday Miss Corelle was captured by Chinese bandits, who turned her over to the Japanese at Newchwang.

Miss Corelle, who last night seemed to be too exhausted to tell her story, today refuses to be interviewed. According to a reliable authority, however, the capture of the young woman by the bandits was part of her own scheme to find her lover.

During the trouble following the Boxer uprising Miss Corelle was a nurse, and her heroic devotion to duty gained for her the Stanislaus medal. While attending the injured in the present war she was wounded in the arm, but she did not permit the wound to interfere with her work of mercy, and for this renewed evidence of heroic devotion she was decorated with the medal of St. George.

It is related by the informant of the Associated Press correspondent that a young Russian officer fell in love with this nurse, who is a remarkably handsome woman, only 21 years old, and that the officers' love was fully reciprocated. Recently this officer was reported as among the missing, and it was believed that he had been wounded on the field or that he had been taken prisoner by the Japanese.

In order to find her lover, it is alleged, Miss Corelle, strolled from the Russian camp some ten days ago, and very cheerfully allowed herself to be captured by the Chinese bandits. The next step in her scheme was to become a Japanese prisoner or at least to reach the Japanese lines. The bandits allowed her to communicate with the French Consul at Newchwang, followed which a detail of Japanese soldiers reached the camp of the bandits, and Miss Corelle was taken to Newchwang. Here she endeavored to secure permission to go to Japan in search of her lover, but the Japanese gave her twenty-four hours to leave the town, suspecting that she was a Russian spy.

The French Consul at Chefoo is now trying to obtain permission for Miss Corelle to go to Japan for the purpose of nursing the Russian wounded there.

JAPANESE PRINCE IS WELCOMED

ST. LOUIS, November 22.—An ovation was accorded Prince Fushimi at the Imperial Japanese Gardens, which he visited again today in the course of his round of sightseeing at the World's Fair.

Following a luncheon given by the World's Fair Directors' Club, at the West Pavilion, the Prince's party was driven to the building of the Board of Lady Managers, where a reception was held in their honor. The final function of the day was a dinner at the St. Louis Club, tendered by the Japanese Minister at Washington.

MUST HANG FOR MURDER

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., November 22.—Division No. 2 of the Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decision of the court sentencing William Rudolph to be hanged for the murder of Detective Schumacher, who was shot and killed while trying to arrest Rudolph for the Union bank robbery. January 13 was set as the date of the execution, which will take place at Union, where Collins, Rudolph's partner in crime, was hanged several months ago.

NEW LIFE-SAVING METHOD.

DR. R. C. HILL, U. C. GRADUATE,
TREATS ASPHYXIA SUCCESSFULLY.

To Dr. Reuben C. Hill, the son of W. Lair Hill, the local attorney and son-in-law of Mrs. C. L. McCoy of 62 West Twelfth street, belongs the honor of having saved the life of a patient at the Central Emergency Hospital, San Francisco, by a new French treatment for gas asphyxiation.

Dr. Hill is on the Emergency Hospital staff and his treatment of the patient consisted in introducing a quantity of hydrogen into the system by means of a stomach pump, the idea being to inject oxygen into the blood, in order to displace the gas which had caused the effects of the carbon monoxide which had been inhaled.

NOT FOR BEST FARM

In the State

"I saw so much in the papers about the wonderful cures effected by Pyramid Pile Cure, I determined to give it a trial. I bought from my druggist one fifty cent box and used it as directed, and by the time I had used the last 'pyramid' I was entirely cured. In four days after I began to use the 'pyramids' all inflammation was gone. I was perfectly easy. If the time, the excessive discharge stopped at once, and stools became easy and gentle."

"I was unable to get my own blood-wood for four months, and half the time when I could walk at all I had to walk with a cane. I used many pile remedies, salves and ointments, all to no effect until I used one fifty cent box of Pyramid Pile Cure and I was cured."

"I would not be afflicted as I was four months ago for the best farm in the State of Arkansas. I can give proof and reference of the wonderful cure to all who are afflicted as I was. Please publish my letter that I may advise the afflicted." W. E. Wallis, Piggot, Ark., Box 26.

The experience of Mr. Wallis is that of thousands of others who suffer for years with the most painful and distressing hemorrhoids, or piles, and after trying everything they hear of, give up all hope of a cure and look for temporary relief only. To all such a little book published by Pyramid Drug Co., 314-316, Mich., brings glad tidings, as it tells all about the cause and cure of piles, and is sent free for the asking.

DOCTOR WANTS MONEY.

Bill of Berkeley Health Officer For Vaccination Held Up.

Upon the question of whether several hundred dollars charged by Dr. F. R. Woolsey, Health Officer of Berkeley, for the vaccination of Berkeley children, is for services rendered or for vaccine virus, depends the question whether or not he is to get his pay. If it is for virus then it will be proper to inquire into the market value of the vaccine by the quart or gallon. A bill for $425.00 at present in the hands of County Superintendent of Schools Crawford, who has an opinion from Deputy District Attorney Harris upon the legality to the effect as above stated.

Dr. Woolsey is the duly elected Health Officer of Berkeley and by a minority of the school board of the district it is claimed, that by charging for his services he is asking pay for what properly falls within his duties as Health Officer. Upon this subject there was a division of the Board, the majority believing that the Doctor was entitled to his money and passed the bill and the question of the legality of it along to the County Superintendent of Schools, who in turn asked the opinion of the District Attorney and the latter must now go back to the Berkeley Board and to Woolsey in order that the charge may be made to conform to the statute and again passed in different form.

The contention made by Woolsey is that he was employed by the School Board to vaccinate the school children. This he claims was done by him in his private capacity as a physician and has no connection with his official duty as Health Officer. Whether this is, or is not so, the District Attorney does not state but he does say that he can find no statute authorizing the School Board to employ a physician for any purpose whatever. It might be argued that the doctor at his own figure, but has no authority to purchase services.

Some of the opponents of the bill on the other hand raised the point that, under circumstances such as well as the fact that the doctor at his own figure, but has no authority to purchase services. Some of the opponents of the bill on the other hand raised the point that, under circumstances such as well as the fact that the doctor at his own figure, but has no authority to purchase services.

whose cases have not been disposed of. The punishment to be meted out to them may be more severe than that in the case of the forty-eight, which is practically no punishment at all.

The following statement was issued today by President Wheeler:

"Captain Nance yesterday filed with the President his report concerning the students accused of delinquency in Military 2 A. Sixty-three students had been given the opportunity to state their cases in full. Only one of them had offered an explanation which was entirely satisfactory. Forty-eight offered explanations which were satisfactory as far as their participation in the disorder was concerned, but unsatisfactory as far as an explanation of their failure to proceed promptly to the class was concerned. These were therefore placed on probation. 'This punishment or censure,' the Captain says in his report to the President, 'is the mildest possible; it is recommended in the belief that it will prove sufficient to bring about a state of proper military discipline in this case, which is the end to be attained, and not in the belief that it is, generally speaking, an adequate punishment for the offense committed.'"

Fifteen cases are held for further investigation. Report and recommendations in these cases will be submitted to the President as soon as practicable. Among these are included a number who have not as yet given a satisfactory explanation on these scores of participation in the disorder."

Spurred flowers in all widths are shown in the shops and are all ready to be tucked to the dress.

Bandanna handkerchiefs in blue and red, Persian patterns, for fancy work are to be had at six cents each.

WITNESSES AGAINST NANCY PATTERSON.

SPURNS OFFERED JEWEL.

Diamond Goes Begging For Owner in Van Horn Trial.

A diamond went begging for an owner this morning in the Van Horn divorce case on trial before Judge Ogden and after being passed through several hands, went back to Ross Van Horn. The incident related the monotony of a two-days' cross-examination of Mrs. Van Horn and for a moment baffled Judge J. J. McCafferty who claimed the jewel for his client but when it was offered to him waived it away as though it were contaminated.

The incident arose over the fact that Mrs. Van Horn made the suggestion that Van Horn was crucified to her and in an instance of this said that he at one time took a diamond ring belonging to her, while they were living at San Rafael, and had it made into a scarf pin. She was being cross-examined upon this point by Johnson who asked her if she had not had it offered back to her by Van Horn on several occasions. To this she replied that she had not.

At this juncture her attorney, J. J. McCafferty, interrupted by saying they would be glad enough to let it at any time.

Van Horn slowly arose out of his chair and drawing the ring from his pocket walked over to Judge McCafferty and held it out to him.

"No, no, no, take it away, take it away," said Judge McCafferty and a smile went round the room.

It was then handed to Attorney Johnson. He held it for a moment, and then said, "Well, no one seems to want it, Van Horn, so you better take it back for it gets into my pocket, you will never see it again."

Van Horn took it back and it was returned to its place in his pocket. Mrs. Van Horn took occasion this morning to reiterate her statement to the effect that one time when she told Van Horn she did not have enough to eat, he said to her, "Well, eat some dried apples for breakfast, and drink water for lunch and you will have a swell supper."

The incident of Mrs. Van Horn being compelled to feed the despised bandit, Tracey, while in her house rear Seattle, at Woodland Park was brought up by the introduction of a picture of the house taken at that time. Mrs. Van Horn's attorney, a attempt to introduce a photograph of the place to show that he had left her in a lonely place alone. Judge Ogden ruled it out on the ground that it was not competent evidence.

This morning Attorney Johnson tried to introduce his photograph of the same house for the purpose of showing what a nice house Van Horn had built for his wife and got Mrs. Van Horn to acknowledge that they were both pleased with it and had lived there

WED IN SPITE OF MOTHER'S OBJECTION

The friends of Miss Len Barkdull of 769 Eighth street, and Andrew Dolan, will be much surprised to learn of the secret marriage of the couple, which took place over a month ago.

Dolan first met his bride at the home of her mother, Mrs. Harry Epstein several months ago. When he proposed marriage to Miss Barkdull, however, the mother strongly objected, and forbade her daughter to have anything to do with him. After a fruitless endeavor to gain her consent, they finally took matters into their own hands and were married in a secret ceremony.

The bride went to her mother's home, keeping her marriage a secret, and the groom resumed his duties with the Southern Pacific Company, with which he has been employed for some time past.

On Saturday last they told Mrs. Epstein of the marriage, and yesterday they went to housekeeping at their new home, 1185 Campbell street.

HOLD SMOKER.

The Amalgamated Society of Carpenters and Joiners of Oakland Branch met last night. After the regular business of the organization was transacted, a smoker was held in honor of the delegates of the order from the East who are in attendance at the convention of the American Federation of Labor in San Francisco, namely, Messrs. William Fyfe of New York, H. D. Thomas of Cleveland, Ohio, and Ben Forsyth of St. Louis.

President Lathrop of Oakland Branch occupied the chair. There were also in attendance a delegation from the Amalgamated Society of Carpenters and Joiners in San Francisco, at the head of which was President Nelson. Refreshments were served and addresses were made by Messrs. Fyfe, Thomas and Nelson. Vocal selections were rendered by Messrs. Fyfe and Lock and quartet and numerous stories were told by Messrs. Forsyth, Thomas and Telfer.

BAKERS' UNION.
Last night a smoker was given by the Bakers' Union, Local 134. Refreshments were served and speeches made by several visitors, among them Frank No-shing, grand president and Klappetzky, past general secretary-treasurer of the International Union of Bakers, and the Federation of Labor convention. The speeches were all on the subject of the welfare of the order and were well applauded by the assemblage.

George K. Smith, president of the local and Benjamin Rosenzweig, secretary, were the chief members of the committee of arrangements, and the success of the evening is largely due to their careful preparations.

Charles Aikens and M. J. Ramos conducted the refreshment committee, and provided a great sufficiency of both eatables and drinks.

It was announced that the Journal of the Journeymen Bakers' International Union, which is the official organ of the organization, would resume publication early next year. The editor, Klappetzky, proclaimed that it will be published in California, probably in the southern part.

OFFICERS INSTALLED.
At the meeting of the Central Trades Council last night in Cooks and Walters Hall, the chief event of interest was the installation of the new officers elected at the last meeting. The principal ones were as follows: President, C. W. Peary; first vice-president, B. Grand; second vice-president, F. C. Joslyn; recording secretary, D. C. Crawford; financial secretary, P. C. Weber; treasurer, J. B. Rebell; sergeant-at-arms, W. J. Hooper.

RETAIL CLERKS' MEET.
Tonight the Retail Clerks' Local No. 47, will assemble in the Electrical Workers' Hall, 849 Broadway. J. R. O'Brien, international president of the union, will be present, and also Max Morris, the international secretary. Both will address the gathering on the merits of the unionists. The employers are generally invited to attend. Tretheway Kellers, the local president, is to be the chairman of the meeting.

Worst of All Experiences.
Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. S. H. Newson, Decatur, Ala. For three years, she writes, I endured insufferable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters and the result was miraculous. I improved at once and now I am completely recovered.

For Liver, Kidney, Stomach and Bowel troubles Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50c. It is guaranteed by Dr. J. C. Williams, Druggists, Seventh and Broadway and Twelfth and Washington.

WOMEN FATALLY HURT IN FIRE

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Three women were probably fatally hurt and five firemen were injured severely in a blaze that destroyed two buildings in Brooklyn early today.

The fire started in the cellar of a drug store at Fulton and Adelphi streets. Three upper floors were occupied by three families consisting of fifteen persons.

The flames sprang upward so quickly that when the sleeping tenants were aroused by the smoke and cackling flames they could all escape by the staircase had been cut off.

Bella Hall, Florence Seabrook and Helen Richardson, all of whom lived on the fourth floor, made their way down one story and out on to a cornice. Mrs. Seabrook had her baby in her arms. The cornice gave way beneath the weight of the women and they were precipitated to the ground.

Mrs. Seabrook clasped the infant to her bosom in such a way that when she struck the sidewalk the little one escaped injury. The women were hurriedly carried to a hospital where their injuries were pronounced probably fatal.

TRIED TO WRECK THE OWL

Passengers Have Narrow Escape on Fast Train.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 21.—An attempt was made at 11 o'clock last night to wreck the northbound Owl, and that the fast train escaped disaster is owing to the fact that an extra freight train was preceding the Owl, which was ditched, but fortunately there was no loss of life.

The scene of the attempted wreck was one mile east of Goshen. The engine and nine cars of the freight train passed safely over the obstructions, and not till the tenth car came along and those following it were ditched.

An investigation was made and the train men found that the spikes had been pulled up and the angle plates torn off.

They also found that one of the angle plates had been placed between the ends of the rails, and that the whole thing had been so carefully planned that the fast train would have been hurled off the track.

The railroad authorities have the detectives at work to see if they can secure any trace of the miscreants.

After the accident to the freight help was secured from Goshen Junction and the track was speedily cleared, so that there was no delay in the arrival of the Owl this morning.

No information was received at Mr. Agler's office this morning leading to the apprehension of the train wreckers, but it is thought that they will be apprehended before many hours, as the officers think that they have a clew.

Some few months ago the railroad people were in receipt of threatening letters from that part of the country, in which the statement was made that there would be attempts made to wreck their trains and a close watch was set.

The railroad people cannot say whether this last wreck was instigated by the writers of these threatening epistles or not.

WOMAN KILLED BY A FIEND

TOPEKA, Kan., November 21.—Mrs. J. R. Nickum, who was branded with an ax and otherwise terribly mutilated early Sunday morning is dead. The case is the most mysterious in the criminal history of Topeka. Over $200 in cash and other valuables were untouched in her home, and the only clue to the crime is a note found in her pocket.

CONSIDER GOMPERS' REPORT.

Federation of Labor in Favor of Excluding Mongolians.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 21.—When the delegates to the American Federation of Labor met this morning they took up for consideration the annual report of President Samuel Gompers. The delegates concurred in every recommendation made by their leader.

The question of Japanese exclusion was introduced and caused considerable discussion. The convention voted unanimously in favor of the exclusion measure as introduced which provided the exclusion of the Japanese and Koreans on lines similar to the exclusion of Chinese under the existing law. Not only did the convention vote in favor of excluding these mongolians from the mainland but from every insular possession.

The convention then voted favorably upon a proposition calling on President Gompers to appoint a committee of three to draw up a petition on the question that might at an early date be presented to Congress.

The plan adopted also called for the circulation of this petition in every organization affiliated with the American Federation of Labor that signatures might be obtained.

These signed papers are then to be returned to the executive council and combined into one monster petition to Congress.

The convention also went on record as being unanimously in favor of the universal adoption of the advisory initiative and the advisory referendum.

It was agreed to secure a signed petition to be presented to Congress on this question. Every union man in the country will be given an opportunity to sign this.

It was also decided to question all legislative and congressional candidates upon their stand on the question that labor might know where to place its support.

There was a warm debate between Delegate Brown of the New York Central Labor Body and President Gompers over the matter of accepting advertisements of non-union firms in the American Federationist, the official organ of the National Body.

CAN RESORT TO VIOLENCE

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—Superior Judge Hebbard today, in a decision, declared that boycotting was deserving of no protection from the laws and so culpable a crime that a sufferer could resort to personal violence to protect his rights. The opinion was handed down in the case of Goldberg, Bowen & Company, against Stiebman's Union Local No. 5760. Judge Hebbard overruled the decision of the defendants, denied the motion to dissolve the restraining order temporarily issued to prevent boycott and picketing, and also denied the motion to modify the same. The union is allowed ten days in which to answer.

WASHINGTON, November 21.—The American-German arbitration treaty was signed tomorrow at the State Department by Secretary Hay and Baron Sternberg.

WOMAN BOUGHT PISTOL.

Nan Patterson Said She Had a Claim on Young.

NEW YORK, November 21.—The prosecutor this afternoon continued his statement to the jury.

He detailed the movements of Miss Patterson and Caesar Young, declaring that notwithstanding the money which was given her as an inducement to leave, Nan said she had a better claim on Young than any other woman and refused to give him up.

Mr. Rand described Young's movements on the night of June 3, when he was with his wife, and went to Elmer's saloon, where they remained until 3 o'clock the next morning. He stated that there were a series of scenes between Young and the woman. When he told her that he was going away, she replied that he could not, and that he could not hide himself on any ocean liner.

Next morning Young met Nan and they drove down town together in the hansom cab in which the tragedy occurred. After the shooting the revolver, bought on the previous evening at the pawnshop, was found in the dead man's right hand coat pocket.

WHEELER NOW HAS REPORT

BERKELEY, Nov. 21.—Captain J. T. Nance, Commandant of the Cadets at the University of California, made his recommendation to President Wheeler today in the case of the seniors accused of participating in the rebellion against the rule of the War Department, resulting from the march into the class room of six hundred cadets who were first accused of participation in the riot.

President Wheeler declines to state the result of his report but he has already declared that he would stand by it. The news of just what the recommendation contained will be awaited with interest by the entire University community.

Robert Moulthrop, a graduate of the University, who has been assisting in the instruction of the University cadets, addressed the battalions this morning and advised the students to stand by the University. Nance, who he declared, is merely carrying out a rule of the War Department when he requires the students to march into the class room.

Moulthrop pointed out the fact that the University receives $100,000 a year from the War Department, and he did not believe that the students should jeopardize the University's chance of getting this amount.

This was Moulthrop's last day at the University and he said a high tribute to Nance as being a fearless soldier who had seen service in China and the Philippines.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—Returning quietly from church services last evening, Thomas Wackford, a stationary engineer, 57 years of age, residing at 828 Mission street, unintentionally stepped on a woman's trailing skirt. He died this morning on the operating table at the Central Emergency Hospital of a fractured skull, the accidental act of the engineer having been resented by an unknown man, who knocked Wackford down in a fit of anger.

This happened on Mission street, near Fifth.

From what is known of the occurrence Wackford, who was a man of peaceful habits and sober, was returning from vesper services along Mission street about 8:30 last evening. When near his home he stepped on the skirt of a woman. She immediately resented the act, and, calling for help, into a lodging house.

The woman, simultaneously with her entrance, a man at present unknown, attacked Wackford, knocking him to the pavement with a savage blow in the face. The back of Wackford's head struck a sharp projection of a cobble edge. The assailant disappeared.

Wackford was found nearly half an hour later at the corner of Mission and Seventh streets, bleeding and dazed.

He asked a woman where 828 Mission street was and she took the wounded man to his lodgings. Later he was taken to the Central Emergency Hospital.

WILL SPEND YEAR IN PENITENTIARY

GRAND DUKE TO MARRY AGAIN

DARMSTADT, Germany, November 21.—The betrothal is officially announced of the Grand Duke of Hesse, who was divorced from his cousin, Princess Victoria of Saxe-Coburg, in 1901, to the Princess Eleonor of Solms-Hohenzoller-Lich.

WANT TO FIX THE RATES.

President Asked to Take a Hand Regulating Railroads.

WASHINGTON, November 21.—Interstate transportation matters, with specific reference to the fixing of railroad freight rates, formed the subject of an important conference at the White House today.

By previous appointment Governor Van Sant of Minnesota, Gov. Cummins of Iowa, E. P. Bacon of Milwaukee, secretary of the convention and R. A. Higbie of New York, an official of the National Lumber Dealer's Association, called on the President to urge him to use his influence to secure the enactment of a law which would confer upon the Interstate Commerce Commission power to fix railroad freight rates in the commerce between States.

It was pointed out to the President that for ten years prior to 1897 the Interstate Commerce Commission had exercised the power to adjust railroad freight rates in order to prevent discrimination but since that time, by reason of a decision by the United States Supreme Court, that power had been denied the commission.

It was urged by the delegation that a law be enacted by Congress conferring upon the commission authority to adjust rates when they were found to be discriminatory in their operation or in violation of the Interstate Commerce Act.

The delegation also suggested to the President the desirability of discussing the subject in his forthcoming message.

The President did not indicate, however, what his personal views were, contenting himself with giving a careful hearing to the statements made.

READY FOR BIG ATTACK

Japs Getting Ready For Final Charge on the Fortress.

CHEFOO, November 21.—3 p. m.—A Japanese official among the late arrivals from Dally states positive that the general attack upon Port Arthur has not been resumed. Rumors to that effect in Dally have arisen because fresh troops, including the Seventh Division recently landed, are being sent to the front.

It is believed that the explosion which took place on November 16 occurred in some counter tunneling work.

The second explosion, which was heard on November 19 was much heavier and it is reported upon the best authority, was due to the blowing up of a Russian magazine.

It is expected that the next attack upon Port Arthur will be a tremendous affair. More reinforcements are coming to the support of General Nogai than those dispatched to Field Marshal Oyama.

The Japanese are now constructing coast defense forts at Pigeon Bay, which is accepted as an indication that they expect to be defending Port Arthur themselves, some day.

OAKLAND TRIBUNE

The President on Appointments.

In a recent letter to Congressman Gardner of Massachusetts President Roosevelt has given another proof of his forthright independence, and at the same time he has admirably stated the relation of Representatives and Senators to Presidential appointments and to the appointing power. Mr. Gardner is son-in-law to Senator Lodge. He claimed the privilege of naming the postmaster of Haverhill, the place of his residence, by Massachusetts custom, which is not like that of other States where Senators select the postmaster. He practically made a demand on the President that his wishes be acceded to. The President writes in reply:

"The Senators do not 'select' postmasters in any State while I am President. I consult them always, and in the vast majority of cases act on the recommendations they make; but the selection is mine, not theirs, and time and again I have positively refused to select individuals suggested to me for nomination as postmasters by various Senators.

"The relation of a Congressman to these appointments rests not upon law, but purely upon custom. Some one must be consulted, and as a rule the Congressman is the man whose advice is most apt to be that which can be followed with advantage to the community, and therefore to the party. But this is a mere custom, and I have never hesitated for a moment to deviate from it whenever circumstances arose that satisfied me it was wise and proper and in the interest of the community to do so."

This may be termed a "call down." The President has reminded Mr. Gardner that he knows his own business and delicately suggests that Mr. Gardner should know and mind his own business as well. The rebuke is both sharp and timely. It is notice that the President declines to recognize "Massachusetts custom" or any other custom not sanctioned by law and which tends to subordinate the appointing power to the whims and personal convenience of Congressmen and Senators. The President very properly announces that he is prepared to consult with both Congressmen and Senators and is open to suggestions from them, but he clearly states that he is not to be bound by their recommendations. Furthermore he lets it be plainly understood that he is open to suggestions from the minority as well as the majority members. That is, he proposes to satisfy himself of the fitness of applicants for appointment and the propriety of appointing them. He recognizes no deputy dispensers of Federal patronage.

"There's nothing left but hope," says Colonel Watterson. What's the matter with that grand old Southern institution the mint julep, Colonel? With cotton up in the pictures and the mint growing fine, the South can still be happy. So cheer up, Colonel, you are not in the last ditch yet.

The Redding Searchlight proposes to knock out Rockefeller and such men as he by knocking out a l incentive to effort. It desires to prevent over-accumulation by taking away the incentive that prompts men to accumulate. The old story of burning down the barn to get rid of the rats.

Apparently the Japanese are finding out that closing in on Port Arthur is a good deal like fighting with a hornet's nest.

The Democrats appear to be rather put out by the way the President has exploded the fiction that he was scheming to succeed himself in 1909. When the Democrats imagine they see a ghost they are pained to find out that it is only a foxfire in a rotten stump.

It appears that the proposed Constitutional amendment extending the session of the Legislature to eighty days and changing the date of assembly has been defeated. This is gratifying. While the amendment has some good features it was loosely drawn, and the allowance of a clerk to each member of the Legislature was an attempt to incorporate legislation of a vicious sort in the organic law. The contingent expenses of Legislatures should be left for each body to fix; public opinion will sooner or later regulate and bring them within proper bounds.

Gompers and the Socialists.

The attack of the Socialists on Samuel Gompers is characteristic. It is a cunning appeal to prejudice and passion—ignorance even—but its object is purely political. It is an effort to depose Gompers from his leadership in the National Federation of Labor that may be made for the Socialist program. Gompers is opposed to turning the labor federation into a political organization to promote Socialism. While he believes in certain Socialistic principles, such as public ownership of public utilities and government of railways and telegraph lines, he is emphatically opposed to the universal application of Socialism. He is set against making a separate political organization of the labor federation. That is why the following leaflet was circulated among the delegates to the Congress in San Francisco:

"Are they traitors? Mr. Samuel Gompers, president of the A. F. of L., Mr. John Mitchell, president of the Mine Workers, President Eliot of Harvard College, Mr. Thomas Higginson, and one or two other dined privately at the Exchange Club yesterday. Mr. Mitchell and Mr. Gompers were guests of the above named gentlemen.—Boston Herald, November 16, 1903.

"The 'scab' is a very good type of the modern hero."—President Charles W. Eliot of Harvard College, in an address delivered before the Economic Club, Boston, November 10, 1902.

"In Buffalo, January 22, 1903, President Eliot, speaking before 1500 high school pupils, said: 'In 1896 I took occasion to say in a public speech that 'a scab is a hero.' I still see nothing wrong in the remark.'"

"On November 18, 1902, at New Orleans, the A. F. of L. passed resolutions condemning Mr. Eliot's remarks as an uncalled-for attack, but Mr. Gompers don't care for that, for he was, and often is, the guest of President Eliot at the Exchange Club, a notoriously unfair place and under the ban of the Central Labor Union.

"Now why does the lover of scabs (Mr. Eliot) so love Mr. Gompers and Mr. Mitchell?"

"Why does President Eliot dine our president and curse the rank and file? Think it over. If you think hard enough you may discover why the power of the labor movement is so limited.

"Send ten cents for ten week's trial of the Social Democrat, Milwaukee, Wis., and keep posted on labor matters."

The charge against Gompers is puerile. It is one of the discouraging features of the labor union movement that it should be deemed treason for the head of the Federation to be the friend and occasional guest of the president of Harvard University, an eminent scholar and thinker and, perhaps, the first educator of his time. Mr. Gompers and President Eliot disagree on many public and social questions, but each recognizes the sincerity and intellectual keenness of the other. Apparently the Socialists think a man cannot dine with another without subscribing to his views. Why not assert that President Eliot holds the same tenets as Samuel Gompers because he sits at board with him? What nonsense! If a man cannot be a labor leader unless he cuts himself off from social intercourse with all who disagree with him, must ostracize himself as it were, from the companionship of intellectual and congenial men of opposing beliefs it is a terrible commentary on the servitude that Unionism exacts of its votaries. But true unionism makes no such exaction. It is a claim put forward to destroy Samuel Gompers. Gompers' destruction is another step toward the destruction of society. Socialism is striking at him in the name of unionism.

HAD NO "COW COLLEGE" TO SHOW.

The State University authorities made a great effort on the Farmers' Institute held at Berkeley the latter part of last month. It was understood by those in touch that the effort was especially intended to capture the farmers for "influence" on the Legislature in securing the regular appropriation for the agricultural department of the U. C., only they want more than usual.

The proposition to have a genuine, really, truly agricultural college of say 500 acres with building and equipment to match is not as popular as it might be in University circles. That means that a good location is to be chosen for the purpose, which also means that no such location can be had at or near Berkeley; and means moreover that the faculty will have to use the hoe instead of the pen.

But the zeal of the appropriation pullers was not wisely directed, the advertising matter for the occasion was conspicuously barren of agricultural matter. Those nice big placards were sent all over the country, and they bore large cuts of the "Greek" amphitheater, the library building, "Beautiful Berkeley," etc., but not a thing of an agricultural nature; not a pumpkin or pig; not a cow, a corn, nothing green but the names thereon. Perhaps it is as well since the agricultural college of the U. C. is carried around in the hats of a few professors, and they of course, had nothing to show and nobody cared to look into those old hats, although they are very expensive to the State. Even the Bermuda grass, so hard to kill in decent soil, died at the U. C. under the intellectual training of its roots to shoot upward and aim high. The placard might have had a grapevine border, a peach-tree filler, alfalfa background, a sheephead or fried calf liver—there was nothing on them, save the marks of the dirty hand of the bill-poster that indicated that the great Farmer's Institute was an agricultural affair in the least particular.

And thereby is their undoing.—Chicago Enterprise.

The prices of Dressing Sacques begin at 75c, and there are good styles at 90c, $1.25, $1.50 and up to $5.50.
The 90c eiderdown sacque is a beauty and great value.

All the necessary materials are here and when you read this we shall be amply prepared to attend to your holiday wants.
The bigger Lace House—three times as big as last Christmas—will surely be the headquarters for gift-buyers this season.

Holiday Values in Ladies' Suits

In our display windows on Washington street can be seen some of the most correct of this season's tailored suits. Perhaps a dozen in all are displayed—but there are hundreds of equal merit inside. ## TO EMPLOYABLE ARCHITECTS.

BOARD OF EDUCATION WILL SEEK ADVICE IN SELECTION OF SCHOOL PLANS.

Feeling the need of professional advice in the matter of making selections of plans for the school buildings to be erected under the provision of the recent bond issue the Board of Education at its meeting last night passed the following resolution:

"To the Honorable, the Board of Education of Oakland, California—Gentlemen:

"Your committee on school houses and sites has made considerable headway in the matter of examining the plans and specifications submitted in competition for the construction of school buildings. The expert in quantities and strength has made a careful estimate of the plans and is about ready to report. The special committee appointed to examine the plans in reference to sanitation has made a careful examination of the same, and is ready to report.

"Your committee has carefully examined the plans and specifications, but desires some help in reference to the architectural features of the school buildings. We would therefore recommend that this committee be empowered to employ, at a reasonable compensation for the services to be rendered, Mr. John Galer, Hays and Mr. Arthur Brown, Jr., as consultants, architects, to advise with the committee in reference to the architecture of the buildings, and in reference to such other matters connected therewith as the committee may desire.

"Respectfully,
"JOHN D. ISAACS,
"JOHN HATHAWAY,
"GEORGE E. RANOLPH.
"Committee on schoolhouses and sites."

The resolution was unanimously adopted and the committee, given the power requested.
The resignation of Miss Anna E. Bliss of the Lafayette School, and Miss L. Moore of the Grant School, as teachers of the Oakland School Department were presented and the same duly accepted.

A petition headed by Jas. R. Little and signed by a number of citizens protesting against the removal of the Lincoln school to the new site was read and referred to the committee on schoolhouses and sites.
The request of the Oaklands High School Assembly to use the common school assembly hall for holding the debate with the Berkeley High School on December 2 was granted.

The Friday after Thanksgiving was declared a holiday by the board in the schools of the city. It was explained by Superintendent McClellan that as was customary school had gone on regularly on election day in order that Friday might be taken as a holiday instead.

A communication was received from Walter B. Bullock offering $25 for the old gas engine at the Prescott school. The offer was referred to the High School Committee with power to act.

The regular monthly salaries of teachers were ordered paid, and as there was no further business to come before the Board an adjournment was taken until next Monday night.

TRUSTED EMPLOYEE CHARGED WITH THEFT

NEW YORK, November 22.—Behind the publication by a detective agency in Wall street of a notice warning brokers and bankers that the assignment on two certificates for one hundred shares of United States steel preferred stock, worth about $1,300 and one certificate for fifty shares of Michigan Copper mining stock worth about $500 had been forged is a report that the certificates were stolen by a trusted man in the employ of Edward Breitung of Marquette.

It is stated that the employee expressed a desire to take a vacation three weeks ago. After he had gone Breitung learned that the man had left no definite address and told different persons various stories as to his destination. Suspicion was aroused and an examination of the safety deposit box to which the man had access was hurriedly made. It is said to have resulted in the discovery that several hundred shares of Michigan Copper mining stock were missing besides the certificates mentioned.

Breitung hurried East and found that the man had already transferred some of the shares to his own name. Owing to the fact that the man was in possession of the certificates there is some question as to who will have to bear the loss.

POLYTECHNIC BOYS SCORE A BIG HIT

A vaudeville entertainment given under the auspices of the Polytechnic High School class of December, '04 at Foresters' Hall Friday night, scored a hit and was appreciated by a large audience. It is estimated that 800 persons were present and the receipts were $200, which is to be used to defray the expense of publishing the class "Scribble" for this year.

The entertainment consisted of a minstrel show and four vaudeville numbers. There were fifty students in the chorus and an orchestra of fifteen instruments. Under the direction of William W. Coffey, the affair was under the general direction of Frank Hays and with Reese Martin, the class president, in charge. Much credit for making the entertainment the success it was, and of which the class feels justly proud.

TO ENFORCE PURE FOOD LAW.

COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS OF NEW YORK TAKES UP MATTER.

NEW YORK, November 22.—Collector of Customs Stranahan at the port of New York, has assumed the aggressive for the government in its attitude towards the enforcement of the Pure Food law with especial reference to the labeling of all imported products with the formula noting the use of coloring or preserving substances of whatever kind, such as sulphate of copper, boracic acid, glucose, etc. That the authorities have decided to show no more leniency toward importers and foreign manufacturers failing to comply with the law is evidenced by the fact that a large quantity of "egg-white" a paste preparation used extensively by bakers and confectioners found to contain a dangerous amount of boracic acid, was ordered transhipped to France.

At the same time importers generally were notified that hereafter the policy of the government to force the transshipment to the original point of shipment of all goods brought here without proper labels. This was the first intimation the importers had received that radical measures were to be resorted to at once to enforce the law. They quickly sought cover by cabling the manufacturers in Europe to hold up further shipments indefinitely.

From official sources it is learned that hereafter little or no attention is to be paid to the analyses furnished by importers themselves or those attested by officials of other governments; that is, no labels are to be passed until a sample of the goods has been analyzed by the Bureau of Chemistry of the Department of Agriculture.

Several large consignments of cherries preserved in glucose, or "grape sugar" will be ordered returned to the manufacturer for proper labeling probably today, and the practice of allowing importers to remove a portion of a shipment under penal bond is to be discontinued for the present.

GRACE M'NAUGHTON A BRIDE.

MRS. FREDERICK CHAMBERS.

SAN RAFAEL, Nov. 22.—Grace McNaughton, the girl whose arrest and subsequent adventures with the Oakland police caused such a stir in that community, has married and discarded the name under which she gained so much notoriety, for that of Mrs. Frederick Chambers. Accompanied by Fred Chambers of San Francisco, the girl came over to San Rafael yesterday and the two secured a marriage license. They were later united by Justice of the Peace Mudge and took the next train back to the city.

Grace McNaughton was a servant in the home of Mrs. T. Mien on Jackson street. She was accused of stealing from Mrs. Mien and was arrested and tried on a larceny charge. She was dismissed.

LAWYER'S HOUSE BLOWN UP.

MIDNIGHT BOMB WRECKS OMAHA HOME BUT FAMILY ESCAPE.

OMAHA, Neb., November 22.—The home of Elmer E. Thomas, a prominent lawyer of this city, and attorney for the Civic Federation, was badly wrecked by a bomb placed on the front porch at 2 o'clock this morning. Mr. Thomas and his family were in the house at the time and he considers it miraculous that none of them were injured.

Mrs. Thomas was awakened about 2 o'clock by a noise on the front porch and aroused her husband, believing that burglars were trying to enter the house. Mr. Thomas began an investigation and discovered a fire on the front porch. He picked up a large rug and attempted to smother the flame when a terrific explosion occurred. Although but a few feet from the missile, he escaped injury. The front wall of the house was blown in, doors were shattered and an immense hole torn in the ground. The interior of the building is a wreck.

A squad of police were on the scene in a short time but no clue to the perpetrators of the deed could be found.

The man evidently made a hasty escape after setting the fuse which exploded the bomb. Mr. Thomas saw no one leaving the premises. The explosion was heard for three miles.

Attorney Thomas has been active for some time in the prosecution of saloon keepers charged with a violation of the Slocum law, which provides for midnight and Sunday closing of saloons. He also has been acting for the Civil Federation in the habeas corpus proceeding by which Thomas Dennison has sought to avoid being taken to Iowa in connection with the $75,000 Pollock diamond robbery. To these circumstances Mr. Thomas said to the Associated Press he attributed this attack on his home.

HE TOOK ALL BLAME OF THEFT

The trial of Edward Shine who with Charles E. Monaghan are accused of having broken into the home of A. Sanchez near Pleasanton and stolen a watch, razor and some other articles was taken up this afternoon before Judge Hall and a verdict was rendered. Edward Shine was convicted of the crime and sentenced to three years at Folsom for the offense was brought back in order to testify in the case, took all the blame for the theft and told the jury that he was the one who had broken into the place. He is the principal witness for Shine who also deposes having entered the place but says that the things were given to him to sell by Monaghan and that he did not know that they were stolen.

REDFIELD CONCERT.

The concert at Maple Hall Friday evening by Lowell Redfield was a success from every point of view. The hall was well filled and the audience was unusually enthusiastic. The concert also, featuring a variety of songs, was well received.

Happy Homes

One of the essentials of the happy homes of to-day is a fund of information as to right living and the best methods of promoting health and happiness. With proper knowledge, each hour of recreation, of enjoyment and of effort may be made to contribute to that end and are of not less value than the using of the most wholesome foods and the selecting of the best medicinal agents when needed. With the well-informed, medicinal agents are used only when nature needs assistance and while the importance of cleansing the system effectually, when bilious or constipated, has long been known, yet until within recent years it was necessary to resort to oils, salts, extracts of roots, barks and other cathartics which were found to be objectionable and to call for constantly increased quantities.

Then physicians having learned that the most excellent laxative and purgative principles were to be found in certain plants, principally in the leaves, the California Fig Syrup Co. discovered a method of obtaining such principles in their purest condition and of presenting them with pleasant and refreshing liquids in the form of a syrup acceptable to the system and the remedy became known as—Syrup of Figs—as figs were used, with the plants, in making it, because of their agreeable taste.

This excellent remedy is now rapidly coming into universal use as the best of family laxatives, because it is simple and wholesome and cleanses and sweetens the system effectually without disturbing the natural functions and without unpleasant after effects and its use may be discontinued when it is no longer required.

All who would enjoy good health and its blessings should remember that it is the one remedy which physicians and parents well-informed approve and recommend and use and which they and their little ones alike enjoy, because of its pleasant flavor, its gentle action and its beneficial effects.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all reliable druggists, at the regular price of fifty cents per bottle, in original packages only, having the name of the remedy—Syrup of Figs—and the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package.

STUDENTS ARE RAILROADED THROUGH COLLEGE. GRADUATES ARE DEFICIENT IN THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE. PRESIDENT WHEELER SAYS THAT EVERYTHING WILL BE GIVEN OUT IN DUE TIME.

Professor Charles Mills Gayley Says Graduates Are Deficient in the English Language.

BERKELEY, November 22.—Professor Charles Mills Gayley, head of the English department, delivered yesterday afternoon before the College of Commerce, a very interesting lecture on the need of the study of English expression by students of the college of commerce in particular and by University students in general. He treated the subject very aptly and made it more interesting by interspersing humorous anecdotes and stories. He said in part: "There is a great need for the study of English expression among you students. There have been many employers in San Francisco who for the last fifteen years have complained to me of the 'horrible' English used by our graduates employed by them. They say that there are very few indeed who can talk and write correctly. Now, the main trouble lies in this—that students are 'railroaded' through college in the study of the professions, and very little time has been spent on the study of English expression and literature, which knowledge makes the gentleman and lady of culture. But finally the English department has found a remedy to this fault. In future all students will be examined in English grammar before they are admitted to the University. The next step to be taken is to awaken in you the desire to study English literature while in college. Devote some of your free elective time to this, and you will find yourselves fully repaid in the end."

"All successful statesmen, business men and men of all professions in Europe and in England, especially, are college graduates, and their success is due in a large degree to their knowledge of the language. Language is necessary to thought, and hence the study of correct language. A blunder in grammar or a break in punctuation may lose for you the position. In society or the club you will find that you make yourselves desirable if you show these little points in language. To acquire all this knowledge in the University I would advise you to take up the courses in argumentation and oratorics and also those in higher literature. I again appeal to you in conclusion to take up this kind of culture, for it supplies the means of acquiring in life in this life."

In conclusion the professor read an extract from Kipling's "True Romance."

ORNITHOLOGICAL CLUB IS FLOURISHING

BERKELEY, November 22.—An ornithological society, the Audubon Club, has been formed lately in Berkeley with Charles Keeler, the San Francisco writer, as president. The object of the society is three-fold—first, to spread the knowledge of the wild birds and their habits; second, to secure additional city and State legislation for the protection of song birds; and third, to see to the enforcement of the present laws.

Many members of the faculty of the University have joined the club, which so far has met with success, and they are all enthusiastic over the idea. These include J. W. Basore, J. A. Allen, Clifton Price, C. W. Wells, W. E. Ritter, J. A. Fryer, H. C. Quayle, H. Overstreet and A. C. Miller. John Muir, the famous naturalist, is also a member.

The club is making special efforts to interest both men and women of the University in this work, more so than they would be great aid in the field work which will soon be begun.

The members do not confine themselves to the study of birds from a naturalist's point of view, but from an artistic standpoint, so that the work is of practical value.

Junior classes are to be formed in the public schools with the idea of interesting the children in the work and thus to insure greater investigation in the future.

Besides Charles Keeler as president, the other officers are: Professor W. E. Ritter, vice-president; Dr. Price, secretary; and Miss Anna Head, secretary. All students who care to join the club should apply to Miss Head, at Head's school, as she has charge of the enrollment list.

GRADUATE STUDENTS WILL CLIMB PEAK IN BERKELEY HILLS.

BERKELEY, November 22.—Preparations have been completed for a trip up Grizzly Peak by the graduate students. All graduates are invited to meet at the Greek Theater on Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock, where they will meet the committee in charge.

The committee is composed of Miss Tipton, '01 (Colorado), chairman; Miss Nye, '02 (Utah), secretary; Miss Storer, '02 (Utah); Miss G. J. Martin, '00 (N. C.); P. Lester (Whitman College), '02 (Oregon); '03 (Utah), and F. Adams, '02 (Stanford).

In case of rain the trip will take place the following week.

BRIDGE BUILDING IS HIS THEME

BERKELEY, November 22.—Under the auspices of the Sigma Xi honor society, Professor Durfee of the Civil Engineering Department delivered an illustrated lecture on "The Historical Development of Long Span Bridges." The lecture was given in room 22, North Hall, the large auditorium being crowded to its utmost by the audience of students and faculty members. The lecture was almost exclusively technical in its presentation, although it was popularly interpreted by Professor Durfee illustrated his remarks with a large number of stereoscopic views he said in part:

"Bridge building is, strictly speaking, an entirely modern science. The Romans built some wonderful bridges. Their success, however, was rather the result of experience and not small amount of guesswork, rather than mathematical and scientific investigation. The modern methods of bridge building, as we know them, did not exist before the year 1850. The truss bridge was first investigated by Pambiro of Italy in 1650. It was made along this line until the beginning of the nineteenth century. This is also the form of the suspension bridge, the exception of the stone arch bridge, and this, as in the case of the Romans, was made by guesswork, rather than of actual mathematical investigation. Along this latter line, I may say that a combination of the two methods, the suspension and the arch, is being used in the new bridge revolutionizing the art of bridge building."

COMEDY IS GIVEN BY CLUB OF STUDENTS AT THE STATE UNIVERSITY.

BERKELEY, November 22.—A small but enthusiastic audience composed of members of El Circulo Iberico and a few invited friends witnessed the presentation of the Spanish comedy "Despues de la lluvia" last night. The play was only of an experimental nature, but the success it achieved has encouraged the members of the club to give another on a larger scale for next term.

Selection on the part of the club by President H. Reef, a Spanish song, "La Paloma," by Miss Edith Meredith, '07, and another entitled "Marquita," by Miss E. Ward, '05, were tributes to the success of the evening. It was announced at the close of the performance that the next meeting would be held a week from tomorrow at the usual time and place.

BOTANY STUDENTS TAKE A TRIP

BERKELEY, November 22.—Professor Jepson accompanied by twelve members of his class in botany, enjoyed a trip to Mt. Diablo, leaving Saturday and returning Sunday evening.

The party walked from Olema through Inverness and on to Mt. Vision by way of Point Reyes. Near the summit of Mt. Vision vicia having five spores were found, which is considered quite an important addition to the knowledge already possessed of this branch of the California flora.

SOME STUDENTS TO WORK DURING THE HOLIDAYS.

Members of these two sections in number amounting to all the laboratory, have expressed a desire to work to make up for the lost from holidays and crowded sections. The laboratory will be reserved for their exclusive use on Friday.

NEW SWITCH BOARD REPLACES APPARATUS DESTROYED IN TOWN HALL FIRE.

BERKELEY, November 22.—After spending the entire day in testing the new fire alarm switchboard that has just been installed to replace the one that was destroyed during the town hall fire, City Electrician Worth Ryder, announces that alarms may be turned in after midnight tonight. During the day alarms were turned in from all the boxes in various portions of the city and the apparatus was found to be in perfect working order.

The loss to the city of the switchboard was quite small on account of the fact that $1500 insurance was carried at the time of the blaze.

STUDENTS ARE AWAITING THEIR REPORTS.

BERKELEY, November 22.—Nearly half a hundred students of the senior class at the University of California are awaiting reports from President Wheeler which will announce their fate in connection with the rebellion against the military rule requiring them to march into Commandant J. T. Nance's lecture room. The fate of the students lies in Nance's hands and it will not be surprising if he has made some severe recommendations to Wheeler.

FURTHER ACTION ON BONDS.

BERKELEY TRUSTEES WILL SOON LAY PROPOSITIONS BEFORE THE PEOPLE.

BERKELEY, November 22.—At the next meeting of the Town Board of Trustees steps will be taken to open a definite proposal on the campaign to bond the town for civic improvements. It is probable that steps will be taken to flood the city with literature explaining the various projects to be voted on.

At the last meeting of the Board the following amounts were decided on for the various propositions to be submitted: Town Hall and site, $100,000; wharf, $15,000; parks, $20,000; fire department, $10,000; manual training, $20,000; street equipment, $7000—total, $252,000.

USED THE MAIL FRAUDULENTLY

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—Many complaints made to the Chicago Postoffice concerning the use of the United States' mail fraudulently have resulted in the arrest of Charles Stutz. A number of complainants from various parts of the country probably will appear to prosecute him.

Charles Stutz, of Maynard, Iowa, alleged that he received a letter from Stutz who claimed the Presidency of the "Central Railroad Bureau" of Chicago. Stutz said he was informed that for $200 he would be taught the various signals and information necessary to become a fireman and for an additional $10 he would be given a position. He alleges he paid the money, but failed to secure the position and finally asked the postal authorities to investigate the case.

CITY TRUSTEES MEET. APPOINT JOSEPH KAHN TO BE SUPERINTENDENT OF ELECTRIC PLANT.

ALAMEDA, November 22.—The Board of City Trustees at the regular session last night named a successor to Gustave A. Niese, superintendent of the municipal electric light plant, who resigned some weeks ago. The appointment went to Joseph Kahn of San Francisco, on motion of Trustee William M. Bowers, chairman of the Electric Light Committee, seconded by Combs. The new superintendent, who will receive $125 a month, the present salary attached to the office, will assume his new duties on December 1.

In a communication Mr. Niese offered to sell a buggy and harness to the city for $80, stating that he no longer had any use for the vehicle, which he had supplied for the department. The matter was referred to the committee on motion of Mr. Bowers, with power to act.

There was a large delegation of residents and property owners of the vicinity of Willow street and Clinton avenue present, including half a dozen ladies, to protest against the city's maintaining the windmill for salt water pumping at the foot of Willow street on the bay shore, as it was declared to be a nuisance.

Gustave Guch of 2555 Clinton avenue sent in a communication in which he asserted that property in that neighborhood was chiefly attractive owing to the fine marine view, which the windmill shut off, while the tank was "conspicuous in its ugliness."

Another protest, signed by thirty-five residents, was read. Dr. F. W. D'Evelyn addressed the trustees on the subject in a forcible plea for the windmill's removal, arguing that the "infernal noises" were unbearable, and that any saving to the city was overbalanced by the consequent depreciation of the value of property. "Anything which interferes with the home factor of Alameda," he declared, is detrimental to the community, whether in fact section or any other. The matter was referred to the Street Committee to investigate and see what disposition could be made of the tank.

ON THE TRAIL OF MURDERER.

DETECTIVES GET CLUE OF MAN WHO KILLED CHAUFFEUR BATE.

CHICAGO, November 22.—Evidence has been furnished by the police indicating that "Mr. Dove," the mysterious passenger who engaged an automobile in which Chauffeur William Bate was killed at Belmont Friday night, was in a hotel at Belmont Friday night, and that he was seen by several persons at the crime scene. Several hours after the crime was committed, a man was seen walking away from the scene, carrying a bag, and was followed by a detective. The man was seen walking away from the scene, carrying a bag, and was followed by a detective. The man was seen walking away from the scene, carrying a bag, and was followed by a detective.

TURKEY SHOOT IS HELD.

ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY FOULS ARE OFFERED TO MARKSMEN.

SAN LEANDRO, November 22.—The great turkey shoot Sunday was very well attended. Nearly all the men of San Leandro were present, as well as large numbers from Oakland, and even from San Francisco. At least 500 people attended as spectators or participants. The event took place at the Hunter's Inn, on the corner of Estudillo and Grand avenues, on Lake Chabot. One hundred and fifty turkeys were sacrificed and each weighed at least twelve pounds. Some people got a fowl at the first shot, and others spent several dollars in vain attempts. One man parted with $15 in his efforts to win a gobbler, but was unsuccessful.

A whole ox was roasted to make a barbecue for the assembled guests, and not much remained when they got through. The whole affair was under the general management of J. H. Roveles, proprietor of the Hunter's Inn, Gonzales and Morgan, the promoters of the turkey shoot, will hold a similar contest Thanksgiving day.

ELMHURST, November 22.—The

T. P. Elms were defeated at the Twenty-third avenue levee last Sunday morning by the Belmonts. The score was 8 to 5. Nelson and Flemming were the battery for the Elmhurst and Peterson and Donsweet for the Oakland Nine. Two double plays were made by the visitors, one in the fourth inning and one in the eighth. The first was made by Nelson, pitcher. He stopped a hard liner, fumbled it, but recovered and passed the ball to Penn at second base, putting out the runner. The rest of the game was a rout. The Elms were defeated by a score of 8 to 5.

HAYWARDS, November 22.—Sun-

day the Haywards team played the Hercules nine from Pinole and won with a score of 10 to 0. The game took place at the Haywards Athletic Park and was enthusiastically and freely watched by their favorite teams, with the result that more than $250 was lost by the visiting nine and its supporters.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS CON-

TINUE MATTER FOR TWO WEEKS.

FRUITVALE, November 22.—Yesterday morning the Board of Supervisors met and took action on the license of Colonel Frank Lynch to sell liquor at Sunol Park. His old license expired about a month ago, and he presented an application for a renewal. According to the law this application must be signed by at least six of the ten nearest freeholders in the vicinity. There were six names affixed to the document, but one of the signers, Chris Christensen, a butcher, was adjudged to hold his property outside the prescribed limits. At the meeting of the Supervisors yesterday the license was extended for two weeks to give him time to get another signer to the application.

FUNERAL OF MISS QUINN.

The interment in the Catholic cemetery immediately followed the service. Miss Quinn was well known to the young people of the neighborhood and universally popular.

BAZAAR A SUCCESS.

The bazaar which the Ladies' Guild of the Fruitvale Congregational Church held at the Armory the last three days of last week, was a very successful affair. A sale will be held in December or January to dispose of the articles remaining unsold at the bazaar.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE BELL.

Two crowded houses greeted first-class performances containing many features last night at the Bell Theatre. A new series of animated pictures of very interesting subjects including a panorama of the Holy City was much appreciated. Bingham and Gable, a musical team of high merit, received considerable applause, especially Mr. Bingham who plays two cornets at one time, playing two distinct airs.

Mr. Rancesmith, a monologist and dancer kept the audience in a continual uproar. Mr. Pringle in pictured melodies seemed to please the audience in a song entitled "In the Baggage Car Ahead." Although the song is old, the stanzas and music are beautiful. Howard Dutton, the clay modeler gives an act entirely different from the majority of acts seen in vaudeville and was received with much applause. Miss Daisy Harcourt is without a doubt the hit of the show, repeating her tremendous success of last week. Her impersonation of English theatre-goers was certainly good and very true to life. Only one feature marred what could have been the greatest show that the Bell has put on the boards. That was the overrated act of the so-called Professor Paul who terms himself the handcliff king of the world. His work is very raw, and the management acted wisely in closing him after his first performance last night. In his place tonight will appear a good comedy act and with the prudent feature eliminated from the bill the show is a good one and will no doubt park the Bell playhouse to the door for the balance of the week.

EMPIRE THEATRE.

There is another good bill at the Empire Theatre this week. There was an entire change of program last evening. The principal attraction was F. L. L. who comes direct from his successful tour of the East. He is known as "The Instrument Man" He can imitate any known instrument, with a solo, and phonetic accuracy that must be heard to be believed. The Linder Sisters are high-class vocalists and whistlers. Joe Allen has a bunch of new hits and Henry King sings a song with illustrations. Swan and Vethelook are a comedy sketch team of high merit and the bill as a whole is an excellent one.

THE NOVELTY.

The Novelty Theatre is giving its many patrons this week the usual excellent program. Manager Hoffman has brought together another aggregation of vaudeville stars which include such celebrities as W. J. Kotter, tr. k. novelties and expert bag puncher who does some clever work in his line. The moving pictures constitute "Barnum's Trunk" and "Simple Simon's Surprize Party" Gaston and H. Roy, Australia's foremost singers, make a hit. Daisy Vennia has a splendid voice and renders some good songs. Jones and Robinson, in their comedy sketch, entitled "The Soldier and the Zulu Maid" do a funny turn and "The Molasses" from the Theatre Comique, Paris, recognized among Europe's great whirlwind dancers are the feature act of the bill. This team is an attraction and was secured by the Novelty Theatre.

PROTEST AGAINST SEWER.

COMPLAINTS OF CITIZENS ARE HEARD BY THE CITY COUNCIL.

Last evening the attention of the City Council was taken up almost exclusively by the consideration of the protests against the sewer assessment on East Fourteenth street and Twenty-second avenue.

The lobby was packed with interested individuals who were present to see if the assessments could not be rearranged. The Council did not take any action on the matter, but referred several legal questions to the City Attorney, Monday next the decision of the Council will be reached.

Attorney W. A. Dow spoke for the majority of the protestants. He said: "This sewer we protest against is along East Fourteenth street and Twenty-second avenue, and is four and a half blocks long. It is constructed so as to take storm water from the outside district, and we object to it on that ground. We believe that the county should be made to pay a part of the cost. We further protest on the ground that there is a difference of $8000 between the estimated cost of the City Engineer and the contract price of $15,000.

"We still have a further objection: That a lot Section 122 of the Charter which provide that all street matters should be referred to the Board of Public Works. If you meet here in the Council with nine members present you could not take action if only five members of the Council voted in the affirmative. The Charter requires six votes. The Charter provides that all street matters shall be referred to the Board of Public Works, if this is not done you have not complied with the law. The Vrooman Act does not cover this assessment fully.

RAISES ANOTHER POINT.
"There is another point and it is this: Our Supreme Court has held that where street works are laid the land or street becomes real estate, merely a lot of land, it is subject to tax just the same as any other property. In this case the benefits derived by the street is more than those derived by any one here."

President Dornin—Should not this matter be submitted to the judiciary and not the Council?
Dor—No, it is strictly within the province of the Council.

Dornin—We provided a time for the protestants before.

Dor—We are not objecting to the limits of the boundary.
Dornin—Then we could refer the matter to the City Engineer again.
Dor—Yes, I think so. I wish to call your attention to one or two matters. I think we should follow the law. It is better that the contractor should lose all than our property should be distributed illegally.

SHOULD BE REFERRED.
"Councilman Meese—I think that this is a matter which should be referred to the City Attorney. We are not lawyers and cannot cope with these legal questions."

Councilman Elliot—It is a foolish law, but it is the law under the Vrooman Act that we sit as a judiciary body.

Councilman Howard—I have a couple of questions which I would like to ask the City Attorney, but I do not suppose he can answer them tonight.

President Dornin—We will have to hear the protestants first.

BLAKEMAN SPEAKS.
T. Z. Blakeman—I represent several parties here. I wish to add to what Mr. Dow said. I will call your attention to one equality which is very manifest. That is some of the lots are assessed $1 a front foot. Other lots which do not front on Fourteenth street are assessed at $5 a lot. The lots which have to pay the most of the assessment are virtually confiscation. All that we ask is justice. Equality is law and law is equality. We are taking care of other people's flood water and not our own.

J. H. Blake, who made an inspection of the sewer, on behalf of the protestants, stated that he had crawled through the underground sewer and had observed holes through the entire length through which surface water dripped.

PRESENTS OTHER SIDE.
Attorney George Reed then appeared on behalf of the Street Department and on behalf of the contractors, E. B. & A. L. Stone.

W. H. Donahue, a sewer builder of thirty years' experience, was put on the stand as an expert to testify to the condition of the sewer. He stated he had made an inspection of the sewer and found it to be in first-class condition. He said the job had been done in a workmanship-like manner and should be accepted.

"But soon after I began to take Wine of Cardui I could see that I was beginning to get back my strength."

That is the comment Mrs. Seymour makes. If you are sick you can take Wine of Cardui and secure health and strength. If other medicines and other treatment have failed, that will make no difference. Few women have taken Wine of Cardui at first. By far the greater number of Wine of Cardui cures are women who could not secure relief elsewhere.

Women who take Wine of Cardui at first have very little to tell of suffering. There is nothing to tell because Wine of Cardui cures them quickly. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

Nearly all women need also a 25c. package of Theodor's Black Draught.

I am pleased to endorse Wine of Cardui as I found it so beneficial to restore my strength after my baby was born. I could not seem to get well enough to be up and able to do my work, and as I had been in bed for six weeks this was rather serious, but soon after I began to use Wine of Cardui I could see that I was beginning to get back my strength. In another week I was able to sit up most of the day and in a month I was able to be up and do most of my work. I think it is a splendid medicine for a woman and can certainly give it highest praise.

WATER COMMITTEE HAS MADE ITS REPORT.

Recommends the Bay Cities' Proposition to the City Council.

The Special Water Committee of the City Council appointed by President Dornin, made its report last night. It is as follows:

"OAKLAND, Cal., Nov. 21, 1904.—To the Honorable City Council of the City of Oakland, Gentlemen: The undersigned, a committee appointed October 10, 1904, by your honorable body to investigate and report upon propositions presented for acquiring a municipal water supply respectfully submit the following report:

COMMITTEE AGREES.

"Of the various propositions brought to our attention the committee having unanimously agreed upon two as possessing the greatest merit and being the most feasible for adoption, was also of the opinion that an expression of preference on the part of our citizens, after setting before them the salient features of each of these, would be of great assistance to the council in deciding as to the project which should be presented to the people in a bond election. We therefore issued a circular letter which is attached hereto, and a copy thereof was mailed on November 11th to every registered voter of the city.

ELIMINATES SIERRA NEVADA.

"We think the above letter sufficiently sets forth the results of our investigation, except that we would now add, that the committee has had to eliminate all propositions presented to it for bringing water from the Sierra Nevada mountains because in each case the expense would be greater than the city can now legally incur, and it does not seem practically possible at the present time to unite Berkeley and Alameda with us in such a plan. The returns from these letters up to 5 o'clock p. m. today have been as follows:

THE VOTE.

"1122 cards have been received. 5054 for the Bay Cities Water Company's proposition, 1545 for the wells supply, 65 for either, 366 are against both propositions. 92 were rejected, of which 52 were not signed, 22 expressed no opinion and 18 for miscellaneous reasons. Of the 366 votes against both propositions, 57 expressed preference for the Contra Costa Water Company's plan, 23 were against municipal ownership on principle, 23 miscellaneous reasons were given, and 368 gave no reason.

COMMITTEE IS OPTIMISTIC.

"In view of the fact that at the recent bond election held September 27th when ten different propositions for public improvement were submitted to vote, a total of 7563 votes were cast, and at the election held April 23, 1904, for the issuance of $450,000 of school bonds, only 3095 votes were cast, we feel that the above response, over the signatures of the voters is indicative of a deep interest on the part of our citizens in this important question of municipal policy.

"While there was at first a difference of opinion in the committee as to which of these two propositions we should recommend we are now unanimous in recommending the Bay Cities Water Company's proposition. Our citizens having expressed their choice in so positive a manner, we believe that all genuine friends of municipal ownership of water supply, regardless of former preference as among various plans for its accomplishment, should now heartily unite in support of this proposition which finds favor with such a large majority of voters who have thus spoken.

"The committee procured the sum of $568.55 from the funds raised by private subscription about two years ago for investigating Oakland's sources of water supply. All of this sum has been expended for postage.

"There remains the following bills to be paid:

Printing .....	$134 50
Labor (addressing envelopes, etc) .....	130 00
Expenses of Committee in visiting wells .....	15 50
Stenographer .....	2 50
Miscellaneous items .....	3 00
Total .....	$285 00

"We ask an appropriation of said sum to be disbursed by Mr. Edward Meese, our Secretary.

"WARREN OLNEY,

ROUTINE OF THE COUNCIL.

MATTERS HANDLED AT THE REGULAR SESSION LAST NIGHT.

At a meeting of the City Council last night there were present Councilmen Aitken, Bacon, Cuvillier, Elliot, Fitzgerald, Howard, Cuvillier, Meese, McAdams, Wallace and President Dornin.

Owing to the stress of time all of the routine business was not transacted.

The following is a report of the matters passed on:

McELROY REPORTS.

City Attorney McElroy reported in response to the communication of E. F. Woolter that was legal for persons to erect iron foundations or build limits of corrugated iron within the fire limits was legal.

CLAIMS ALLOWED.

The following claims were ordered paid: E. F. Scott, $30; C. Franks, $30; G. N. Bonham, $26; Tiersman & McGillivray, $8.75; F. E. Merrill, $35; F. H. Merrill, $35; John Chubb, $17.50; R. S. Chapman, $146.92; S. V. Stevens, $35.48.

ADOPT PENDERTON'S RESOLUTION.

The following resolution was introduced by Councilman Penderton at the request of Mayor Olney and was adopted:

Resolved, That the City Attorney be, and he is hereby, requested to consult with Bay Cities Water Company and prepare for submission to the Council a draft of a contract by which the Bay Cities Water Co. shall undertake to carry out the terms of the proposition heretofore submitted by the city to the City of Oakland for supplying the city with a municipal water plant.

sentiment and a large organization for that purpose, and money will not be lacking to carry on a fight so long as there may be necessary.

"There are vested interests aside from the rights of the farmers to be considered. What will the Alameda Sugar Works, Contra Costa Water Company and Spring Valley Water Company do? They, as well as the farms, from Decoto to the county line," to quote from the call to the voters, will be damaged by the lowering of the water table throughout this valley.

"There is, as Engineer Schussler says water enough flowing under Niles bridge in high water in a single day to supply San Francisco for a whole year, but by July there is not a drop. To take from the cone, then, water that is stored by nature there, and is relied on for the absolute necessities of this great valley, for irrigation and domestic purposes, when the proper way—even if it does cost more—would be to save this winter's flood water, which is owned by no one and is going to waste as fast as it can, would be utterly folly. And as to cost, it is entirely possible that, should the city at last obtain clear title to the water of the cone, this smaller supply will cost more, and be slower in getting, owing to the law's well-known delay. What the more distant supply which is owned by no one, and that any one who has the facilities may store—and this without damage to living man.

"The Bay Cities Company agrees to shoulder the cost of litigation, but in doing so they know that said cost cannot be great, as they will not be damaging anyone by taking water that is running to waste. The reservoirs are the key to the local supply, and while the Spring Valley Company has the largest and possibly the best sites on this watershed, the Bay Cities Company, by owning the upper courses of the streams, can be enabled to fill large reservoirs every year.

"I know little about this supply, and have no personal interest in the matter, but I do know that the Niles Cone proposition will entail almost endless litigation and delay, and I fully believe, a failure in the end to obtain a single gallon for the use of the city of Oakland. Very respectfully,
"J. C. SHINN."
"Niles, November 19, 1904."

E. H. DYER IS AGAINST BAY CITIES PLAN.

Does Not Believe Company Can Supply the Water—Favors the Niles Cone Scheme.

The following article from E. H. Dyer presents the scheme of the Bay Cities Water Company in a rather unfavorable light and advocates the securing of a water supply from the Niles Cone.

"ALVARADO, November 21, 1904.—To the Honorable City Council of Oakland, Gentlemen: Knowing that you have under consideration a matter of great importance to the City of Oakland, and that you necessarily wish to obtain all the light upon the subject possible, I desire to call your attention to some facts in relation to the matter I have had an opportunity of becoming better acquainted with than probably anyone interested in the matter.

SURVEYED LAND.

"Years ago as United States Deputy Surveyor, I townshipped and subdivided the greater portion of the land embraced in the great watershed of the Alameda Creek and its tributaries. While making these surveys I became convinced that there could be sufficient water obtained from the Alameda creek and its tributaries, taking the rise near Mt. Hamilton, to supply San Francisco and Oakland with water. I immediately organized a company for that purpose. We had a committee of leading citizens of Oakland visit the premises, but they decided that Oakland was too poor to undertake the enterprise.

We then re-organized our company, which then consisted of C. L. Ralston, C. N. Felton, Charles McLaughlin and others, with a view to furnishing water to San Francisco. The Superintendents of San Francisco, with their many friends, visited the premises and were favorably impressed.

SPRING VALLEY BUYS.

"At the same time the engineers and others interested in the Spring Valley Water Company accomplished the city of San Francisco in their visit to the city of San Francisco immediately issued a cry of 'cow pasture' induced to do so by reasons best known to themselves. This killed the project.

"Soon after the Spring Valley Water Company bought the high water we acquired, paying therefor $500,000. Previous to making this purchase the Spring Valley Water Company had secured the Calaveras valley as the site for the main distributing reservoir, and had bought out most of the settlers in the valley. We also selected sites for storage reservoirs on Smith and Isabel creeks. These creeks form a junction eight or ten miles south of Calaveras valley and form a part of what is known as the Provo Honda, or Calaveras creek, which flows north through the Calaveras valley, and is the source from which the great Calaveras reservoir is to receive its supply. This reservoir is now in course of construction, and the time has arrived when San Francisco needs a larger supply of water than it has at present.

GIVES GOOD POINTS.

"This brief statement may aid you in better understanding the chief source from which Alameda creek derives the most of its water. I wish to state further that the Calaveras valley is a junction with Alameda creek about a mile north of Alameda valley, and is the most important tributary as far as volume of water is concerned. South of this junction with the Calaveras, Alameda creek the land is dry for nearly nine months in the year and it is of little value as a source of water supply.

"The Spring Valley Water Company has expended millions of dollars in securing the riparian rights of Alameda creek and, if I am correctly informed, they have a good title and full control of these waters on the bay of San Francisco, to the source from which all its tributaries take their rise, including particularly the San Isabel and Smith creeks. These two creeks and their water sheds being depended upon by the Spring Valley Company as the source from which this great Calaveras reservoir is to be supplied.

"Now, the Bay Cities Water Company proposes to impound the waters of San Isabel Creek and convey the same to the City of Oakland. Can they do this without the consent of the Spring Valley Water Company? An answer to this question can easily be obtained from the Spring Valley Water Company, should your honorable body desire the information. If the Bay Cities Water Company are to displace the Spring Valley Water Company's rights, the latter company loses its best source of supply for San Francisco.

BAY CITIES IMPOSSIBLE.

"In the proposition of the Bay Cities Water Company it is stated they intend to divert the water of San Isabel Creek by means of a tunnel to Arroyo Honda del Valle, thence by the way of said Arroyo to Oakland. The Arroyo del Valle takes its rise in a high mountain in a northeasterly direction from the San Isabel valley, runs northerly, leaving the mountains near the town of Pleasanton.

"It is only a dry ravine during most of the year, and is but of little value as a water supply. Engineers will tell you that it is impracticable to divert the waters of the San Isabel creek into the Arroyo del Valle. I do not pretend to write this article as a disinterested spirit as the members of your body know I have an interest in the Niles cone and firmly believe that Oakland can obtain a supply of pure water from those great hills, beds cheaper and better than from any other source.

WANTS FAIR PLAY.

"A committee of your body presented the merits of the two schemes you have under consideration fairly and impartially to the voters of Oakland in order to obtain an expression of their views. After this fair and honest presentation of the case, no newspaper or individual should have tried to influence the minds of the voters by newspaper articles containing exaggerated statements in regard to water power that could be developed for the purpose of generating electricity, and also a statement that the Niles cone could only produce 12,000,000 gallons of water a day.

"The statement in regard to power, I will say that there are no streams large enough to furnish power to any extent except during the times of floods, which would be only a few weeks. The water for furnishing cities has to be stored during the rainy season for use during the remainder of the year by dams, creating artificial reservoirs. To use this water for power would soon deplete the supply intended for the cities.

"In regard to the amount of water the Niles cone will supply, it is not yet practically known, and will not be until properly developed. Geologists and eminent engineers who have studied the subject give it as their opinion that at least 20,000,000 gallons a day can be taken from these gravel beds without perceptibly diminishing the supply.

HAS BIG CAPACITY.

"As the largest of these gravel beds receive their supply from some subterranean source, as has been fully demonstrated by a well or my premises that was sunk more than five years ago and which is not affected by either drought in summer or the winter floods and, knowing, as I do, the extent of the great water-shed that supplies these great subterranean strata of water that permeate through these gravel beds, I believe that at least 50,000,000 gallons can be obtained from this great underground reservoir without perceptibly diminishing the supply.

"In conclusion I will say that I should not have addressed you on this subject had it not been that I wish to express my dislike to the unfairness of those newspaper articles. Very respectfully,
"E. H. DYER."
